

10 Ideas of What to Write Inside Your

“Perfect Mother’s Day Card”

Say Thank You – mention skills she taught you and how you still use them today; list all the places mom drove you to (practice, rehearsals, school, job, friends’ house); speak from the stomach – praise her recipes/meals and tell her what you love; list the ways she has helped you with your own kids

List her Character traits you love and how you see them in action; Let her know what you love about her

Compliment her looks

Appreciate her Advice – tell her which advice you still remember and think of often; let her know how it has changed your life or help you to grow as a person

Point out her Example – of motherhood, patience, unconditional love, being thrifty, etc. – highlight something you saw her do and how you want to be like her

Be Proud – write why you are proud of her

Include Inspirational Quotes and/or Sayings & Verses – and add why you picked that saying

Say I Love You

Remind her that she is Special – list reasons why

Confirm that she holds a special place in your Heart

